CAFFE 51

Our most-loved breakfast spot in the village.

Homemade breakfasts that change with the week, and bread you'll think about later. Sit on the front stoep and watch McGregor wake up — or out the back, on the terrace overlooking the gardens.

KUNSKOMBUIS

Classic South African breakfast, unburied, in a garden.

A little further down Voortrekker — a lovely garden setting with a pond. The kind of breakfast that means proper eggs, good coffee, and time to linger.

AT THE COURTYARD

Steve's woodfired pizzas are the best in town and beyond. And Meg's fine bistro never disappoints.

750 M · 10 MIN ON FOOT

Ten minutes from your front door. Meg and Steve cook contemporary Mediterranean — fresh, unfussy, made by people who actually love what they do.

The courtyard itself is the draw: check out their live music events, cozy atmosphere inside or outside on the patio. Go for the pizza. Stay for a second glass of wine.

TEBALDI'S

Three minutes down the road, inside the garden of Temenos Retreat. Our go-to for an easy lunch or dinner.

350 M · 3 MIN ON FOOT

BREAKFAST

LUNCH

A walled garden of old roses, linen tablecloths, mirrors, birdsong. Tebaldi's is the kind of place where lunch quietly becomes dinner.

The menu is contemporary country cooking with a Mediterranean pulse. Do plan a wander through Temenos' extraordinary gardens — either before you sit down, or afterwards. They also do pizza takeaways if you'd rather eat at home.

LUNCH

Lords is one of the prettiest wine estates in the valley, and the bistro sits right in the middle of it. The menu keeps it simple — the view is the winner here. Order a glass of the Lords Shiraz and let the afternoon take its time.

Open for breakfast and lunch only, seven days a week.

RAGAZZI

A finely curated Italian — or Italy-inspired — restaurant, in a chic modern building of glass and stone with stunning views across the valley.

23 KM · 25 MIN BY CAR

DINNER

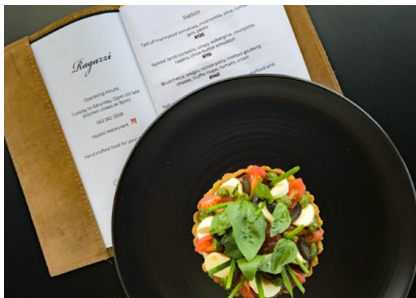

Twenty-five minutes towards Robertson. Handmade pasta, a short seasonal menu, and the real Italian deal: Antipasti, Primi, Secondi.

Always a beautiful selection of handmade pasta, proper main courses, and top-notch Neapolitan pizzas — the kind that are hard to find even in Italy these days. Believe me. I'm Italian.

LUNCH

In Robertson. Small Hotel is where the chef's creativity runs the kitchen — inventive, local, never fussy.

Eat inside under the pendants or out on the patio among the planters. Our favourite for a quiet, elegant meal that doesn't take itself too seriously.

LUNCH

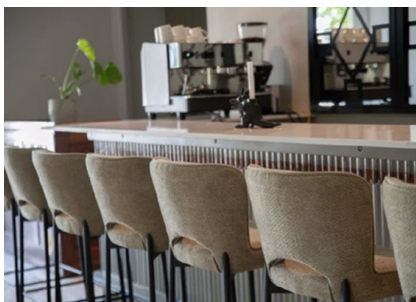

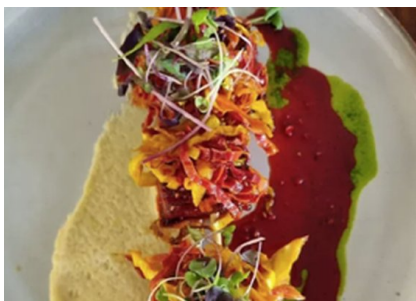

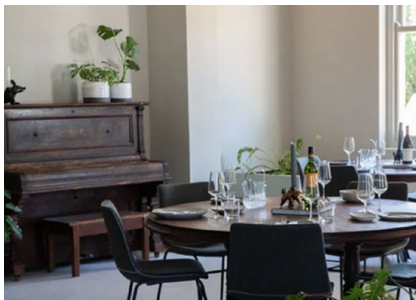

A short drive into Robertson. Al fresco dining around the pool (which is lovely), a handsome big dining room for cooler evenings, and very attentive staff throughout.

The menu changes often; what stays is the care.

KAPOKBOS

Absolutely worth the drive. A long lunch in the middle of the Weltevrede vineyards.

44 KM · 35 MIN BY CAR

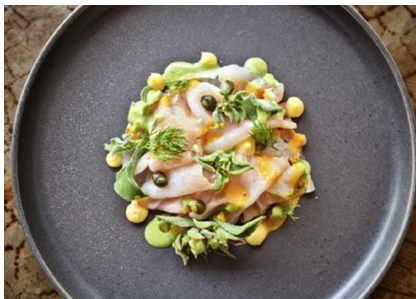

The finest dining experience in the area, plain and simple. Juan and Samantha, the married chef duo behind the kitchen, have lifted local produce into something with real international flair — contemporary country cuisine at its most considered.

Super attentive service, paired with estate wines the Jonker family has been making for generations. Come for a long lunch. Walk the vineyard after. It's the kind of afternoon that stays with you.

FOUR COUSINS

Family-friendly, just down the road in Robertson. The kind of place you go when you want breakfast all morning and no fuss at lunch.

25 KM · TOWARDS ROBERTSON

LUNCH

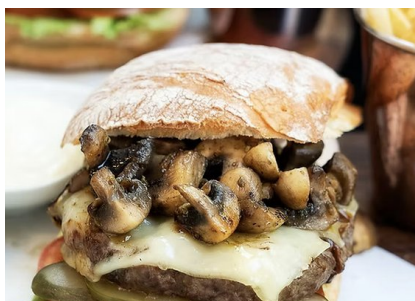

Open from breakfast through dinner, Monday to Saturday — and Sunday until 5pm. The breakfast is the reason we send people: sumptuous, properly generous, and delicious.

Lunch and dinner lean easy-going — burgers, steaks, big salads — the kind of meal where no one complains and everyone leaves happy.

TUESDAY

Nights

JIMMY'S PUB & THE MONSTER MUNCH TRUCK

Every Tuesday, the whole village seems to turn up.

From 5:30 to 7pm, the Monster Munch food truck rolls in and parks opposite Jimmy's Pub on Voortrekker. Place your order at the truck, then settle in at Jimmy's with a cold drink while you wait.

Pick up your gourmet burger or the week's special, take it back to your table, and order a second drink to go with it. That's the whole plan. It's a good one.
